
Located in the heart of the Isabella Reservation, we offer a Community-Based Program catering to the needs of Native Americans who want begin a journey to recovery.

Programming is based on the Twelve Steps and incorporates the cultural and traditional teachings as part of the healing process. Residents are exposed to the Ojibwe language, ceremonies, native values and historical contexts through our cultural curriculum which is supported by our clinical approaches.

Residential Substance Abuse Services

Mission:

The purpose of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe Behavioral Health Programs is to provide comprehensive, individualized and holistic outpatient and residential substance abuse treatment and mental health services to Native Americans encompassed in the designated service area. A cultural and sensitive approach shall be taken in the delivery of counseling, outreach, crisis intervention, administrative services, preventative measures, evaluation and planning for appropriate mental health and substance abuse services and referrals to the clients served.

Philosophy:

Behavioral Health programs shall be to help the community members to identify those tools and resources necessary to achieve a balance in their life. The Medicine Wheel concept of integrating the four components of spiritual, emotional, physical and intellectual aspects of a person's life into a holistic model of recovery is the heart of Nog-da-win-da-meg "Taking care of one another".
